Have You Seen the Elks' Pony?
Will you ride, or have you seen the little pony?
They all say he is some cute, well, this is surely the greatest little turn-out for miles about. You can see it on the streets every day, and what do you think? It is to be given away at the Elks' bazaar. Be sure and ask about it. Everybody should and will know.

BROADWAY THEATRE.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Speaking the universal language of the heart and reflecting like a mirror, the innermost emotions of the mind, Staton's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is more than a stage play—it is a wonderful moral classic. It argues for the two really great themes that can engage the mind of man—human liberty and the immortality of the soul. It is a play that has long been a popular favorite with the infrequent theatre goers and regular patrons alike. It is a play that has long been a popular favorite with the infrequent theatre goers and regular patrons alike. BREED THEATRE.

"In Old California," Thrilling Romance of the West.

In the superb romance of the Spanish Dominion by the Biograph company, entitled "In Old California," the Breed theatre has a genuine novelty. A pretty Spanish senorita, is beloved by a wealthy young Spaniard, also by a handsome troubadour of the village. The young troubadour's musical talent wins her, and she marries him, and twenty years later, finds the home with a grown up son, and conditions in a wretched state. She appeals to her former lover, now a knight, to take her son and make a soldier of him. Out of former love for her, he accepts the task, but the blood of the father shows up, and he is presented several times for misdeeds. The poor mother, dying in squalor, begs the privilege of seeing her son again, believing him to be a hero, and the Governor permits him to return to her under guard, and decorates him with medals to substantiate her belief. She is overjoyed at seeing him, and the excitement proves too much for her weakened condition, and she expires, whereupon the medals are snatched from the culprit son, and he is given just punishment. The closing scene between the dead mother and her former lover, is one of the best pieces of acting in the whole reel, and the picture is a pronounced success. Two other big western pictures are on the programme, and an excellent educational film.

Mr. Ray is heard in a new selection entitled Angel Eyes, which is a distinct song-novelty.

LADIES' CORSET COVER.

Paris Pattern No. 1632—All Seams Allowed.

The neat and simple model here shown fits the figure snugly, closes down the center front and finishes with a pleated, satin-like, lawn, jaconet, batiste or in fact any of the sheer white materials are adaptable to its development. The neck and armholes are edged with narrow lace or embroidery edging.

Pansies for Veterans' Graves.
"There's rosemary, that's for remembrance; pray, love, remember; and there is pansies, that's for thoughts." So, Ophelia. So, too, the Grand Army post in Brockton, which has decided to decorate the soldiers' graves on Memorial day with baskets of growing pansies rather than with cut flowers. The plan is excellent, and is neither burdensome or impossible. To those who hope to see the custom of Memorial day perpetuated there can scarcely be a flower to appeal with greater force than the pansy for this purpose.

POISONED BY PIN PRICK

"Several years ago I had a little pimple come between my ankle and knee. I opened it with a pin which caused it to inflame. In a short time my limb was so poisoned and swollen I could scarcely use it. I suffered intense pain, being unable to rest day or night. I tried every remedy recommended, consulted several specialists but grew worse all the time, finding no relief in anything. My sister recommended the Cuticura Remedies. I began using the Cuticura Remedies according to directions and I was so much relieved that I slept some the first night. The itching, burning and swelling in my limb gradually decreased and the sore began to heal. After six months' suffering such as I had endured, the relief was wonderful. I continued the treatment several weeks and a permanent recovery was the result. I shall ever recommend the Cuticura Remedies to any one suffering from blood and skin diseases. Mrs. D. M. May, R. F. D. 5, Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 25, 1909." Mailed free, Cuticura Book on Skin and Scalp Diseases; Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Mass.

hardly appropriate. Now we do not need comforting because they are gone; but we do need to think of them. Pansies "for thought," pray remember. They will bloom generously and for a long time. It is a good idea. —New Bedford Standard.

MERIDEN FIREMEN.

To Ask for Longer Vacations—Want Ten Days.

Permanent members of the Meriden fire department will ask the fire commissioners for longer vacations. They are anxious to get three days off duty each month and ten days on a stretch in the summer. A petition is being circulated and will be sent to the board Thursday night.

At present the fire fighters are allowed two days a month and one week for their summer rest. They are, of course, paid when off vacations. It is believed that the request will be granted. In other cities more time off is given the firemen, and more salary, too. —Meriden Record.

Consul General R. M. Barileman reports that the Lloyd Italianos 12,000-ton steamer Principessa Margherita was placed on the line between Buenos Ayres and Genoa in May, 1909, has just broken the record between these ports by her trip in the five days and 7 hours. The average run from New York to Buenos Ayres is 26 days.

In a Belfast breach of promise case the man, a farmer, won. He agreed to marry a spinster if she could raise $500. She was able to get together only $300, so the farmer called it off, despite the fact that he had ordered the clergyman to be on hand to marry them. The judge said that the promise to marry was conditional, and the condition had not been fulfilled.

Excellent natural pottery is manufactured by nature of the case of a certain cactus. Woodpeckers are apt to excavate nests in the trunk and branches, and in order that it may protect itself against these incursions the plant extrudes sticky juices, which harden, forming a woody lining to the hole made by the birds. Eventually the cactus dies and withers, but the wooden bowl remains.
